A group of approximately ten people are standing on a bridge or walkway at night, protesting. They are wearing winter clothing and face masks. In the background, a city skyline is visible with many lit-up buildings, including a prominent skyscraper with a blue light on top. The date '22 JAN. 2021' is displayed on three separate signs held by the protesters. A large, glowing yellow text overlay reads '#NUCLEAR BAN'.

Proclamation

Whereas: We are proud to welcome these organizations and individuals that are committed to improving our city and enriching the community; and

Whereas: since 2007, the International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons has built a global coalition in support of a future free from nuclear weapons and the existential threat they pose worldwide; and

Whereas: in 2017, the Nobel Committee awarded ICAN the Peace Prize, recognizing their decade of tireless advocacy and ultimate success in helping pass the groundbreaking Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons; and

Whereas: today the Treaty enters into force, a historic first step toward eliminating nuclear weapons and averting their catastrophic consequences;

Now, therefore, I, Gale A. Brewer, do hereby commend ICAN for its contributions to the City and proclaim Friday, January 22, 2021,

"International Campaign to Abolish Nuclear Weapons Day" in the Borough of Manhattan.

Gale A. Brewer

A black and white photograph of a tall, modern building at night. The building's facade is covered in a grid of windows, many of which are illuminated from within, creating a pattern of light and dark rectangles. On the right side of the building, a large, bold, white message is displayed vertically. The message reads: 'ARMES NUCLEAIRES TOUJOURS IMMORALES AUJOURD'HUI ILLEGALES 22 JAN 2021 #NuclearBan'. The text is arranged in a blocky, sans-serif font. The building is set against a dark, clear night sky. The overall mood is one of protest and activism.
